Rehearsals for the Fall 2019 session of the Family Folk Machine, “One Family,” will begin on Sunday, August 18. Prospective members are welcome to join us! Send a note to Jean (jean@familyfolkmachine.org) for more information.

The Family Folk Machine is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in Iowa City. We are an intergenerational, non-auditioned choir that welcomes kids and adults of all ages and backgrounds to sing together with a band. The FFM seeks to build community through singing songs with our neighbors, to explore American history and culture through song, to foster individual musical growth, and to pursue excellence as an ensemble.

The Family Folk Machine is directed by Jean Littlejohn with associate directors Gayla Drake and Nicole Upchurch, instrumental instructor Craig Klocke, and choral instructor Jon Ranard. Visit us at familyfolkmachine.org or find us on Facebook.
